Next-Generation RH

Restoration Hardware recently debuted RH Modern with a Los Angeles flagship, a handsome website, and galleries in current and future stores (Atlanta, you're next). Here, three designers pick their faves from the new line. rhmodern.com

Inspired by 1940s French lighting fixtures.

▲ HEATHER WELLS
PAULLAC SINGLE SCONCE
BY JONATHAN
BROWNING, $369

"This is a classic transitional piece—it's bold yet subtle; it holds its own but can also recede. And while it recalls more traditional lanterns, it has an edge. Those are the modern pieces I like, things that can withstand the test of time."

▲ BETH WEBB
ALFIERI CHAIR,
$3,995

"It's suited for many rooms, but I particularly see it in a library. The pitch of the back, the seat depth, and the fact that the cushions are down-wrapped says great style coupled with great comfort!"

▲ ECHÉ MARTÍNEZ
MACHINTO ARMOIRE,
$3,995

"The perfect intersection of warm, impeccable craftsmanship and clean-lined simplicity. I see this as a statement in an entry foyer, setting the tone for the rest of the house."
