Guest Rooms of Honor

Give visitors the royal treatment, be it in a tranquil oasis or a memorably vibrant escape.

SOFT DUCKLING 3001-2A
VALSPAR

“Your visitors will wake up to sunshine each and every day with this color. Yellows tend to go green or brown, but this shade is clear and bright. Guest rooms are a retreat from the norm, so I’d take a leap of design faith and pair this hue with a lush upholstered bed and mismatched side tables.”

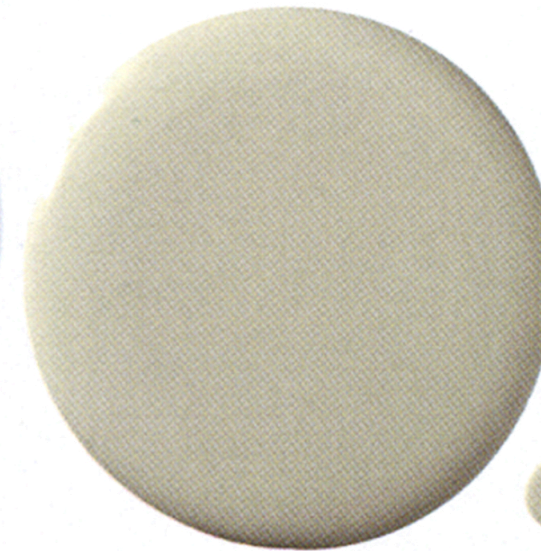

ROBERT PASSAL

CHINA WHITE PM-20
BENJAMIN MOORE

“I find this to be one of the most sensual off-whites. Because it has a tiny bit of putty in it, this color looks wonderful with sumptuous taupes and grays as well as crisp, fresh whites. It makes for a peaceful space that is calm and comfortable—precisely how one would want a guest to feel during a long weekend away.”

MANUKA
SYDNEY HARBOUR PAINTS

“An ideal guest room welcomes you home and makes you feel as if you are the first and only person to stay there. This shade feels homey and clean at once. It’s the perfect soft neutral. It feels fresh and light in the sun and cozy in the fog or rain.”

ALLISON DEHN BLOOM

BLUE HAZE 1667
BENJAMIN MOORE

“Reminiscent of ocean waters and vacation skies, this serene blue creates an idyllic retreat. It has a hint of green and soft gray and pairs well with navy, lime, or white. If timeless beauty and Zenlike calm combined to produce a color, this would be it.”
