Holidays at Home

DECORATE & ENTERTAIN IN STYLE

To All a Good Night
BEAUTIFUL NEW BEDS & LUXE LINENS

Ruffles Around the Edges

"If you love to entertain as I do, you can never have too many platters or bowls, and white is always right no matter the season. The subtle gold detail makes these perfect for the holiday season. All our children turned out to be great cooks, so one for each in hope they host the 'night before' this year!" Contour oval bowls; annieselke.com

"The indispensable tool for those who love to cook and those just learning—elegantly wrapped in blue Vachetta leather. My sweet husband, who does so many, many things so very, very well, alas cannot boil water. Sweetie, this one's for you!" Joy of Cooking; graphicimage.com

Sweater Weather

"I love the story behind the brand Le Lion, and the fact that I'm a Leo makes it all the more interesting. Who doesn't love a good Italian wool sweater—personally embroidered to boot? The stars have aligned, and this is the must-have gift for my astrologer!" Crewnecks and hat; lelion.com

Sharp Cards

"If I ever retire and find myself playing bridge in Palm Beach or Lyford Cay, this will be my go-to gift for my bridge partners. Elegantly boxed, these gorgeous playing cards remind me of Fleur Cowles illustrations." Playing cards; overthemoon.com

Of Note

"Elsie De Wolfe said, 'I can't paint. I can't write. I can't sing.' That rings true for yours truly. But I have many friends who are copious note-writers. This gift shall go to one of my favorite friends, author Emily Giffin, to whom writing is second nature." "Sister Parish Design" correspondence cards; dempseyandcarroll.com

I'll Tumble for You

"We just finished a client's house where we painted the kitchen cabinetry this particular hue of blue—divine! These will be hers Christmas morning." Octagonal Twist Glasses; krbnyc.com
